Ghost Hunting 101 with Sherri Brake at The Ohio State Reformatory

2017-11-17 19:48:59 by MelissaH0243

This event is a two-part course in paranormal investigating.

NEW in 2017! For ages 13 and up with parent participation: Ghost Hunting 101

Saturday, November 18th
10:00am-12:00pm

Join acclaimed paranormal researcher, Sherri Brake, in the light of the day for a two-hour seminar on the basics of ghost hunting; later that evening you will return to the Reformatory for a special guided ghost hunt with Sherri.

Pick from a 10 am session or a 2 pm session.

During the day, you will receive hands-on experience with professional grade ghost hunting equipment.

Sherri will help with the following:

Help to understand the paranormal field and its vocabulary
Learn a basic history of OSR from the Civil War era thru the present
Develop and sharpen your investigating and documentation skills
Learn types and levels of paranormal activity including those at OSR

Communication with the entities, learn Electronic Voice Phenomena and how to capture it best
How to capture physical evidence through photos & videos of activity
Learn to take the best paranormal photograph photos
Learn to investigate using paranormal protocol
Hands on use of investigation

Participants return in the evening for a private ghost hunt for both AM and PM sessions. Put what you've learned to the test, and explore the building as a paranormal investigator.

Cost for this event is $115 per person.
