Oak Hill Cottage is Open for the Season

2017-04-05 11:29:26 by MelissaH0243

The grande dame is 170 years old and open for another season of Sunday tours.

Open Sundays April through December except Easter

2pm-5pm.

Price: Adults $5 donation

Children $1 (12 & under)

Carriage House open Free during Sunday Tour hours.

Also visit our Basement to Attic Tours which include a discussion of the Cottage grounds, the architecture of the house, and the era of John L. Robinson, the original owner of Oak Hill. Behind the scenes spaces are toured including the basement and summer kitchen, the maid's quarters, a view of Mansfield's skyline from the porch roof, the balcony room, and of course, the attic, in addition to the livings spaces. You must be able to climb stairs and negotiate low doorways. Shoes, not including flipflops, must be worn.

BTA Tours are limited to no more than 15 people.

We will schedule a tour for 2 or more people. Days and times are flexible including evening hours. If we schedule your small group, we will announce it and try to fill the tour with more people.

Price is $12 per person. Special pricing for families consisting of parent/s and children over 10yo = $8 per person. Members $6 per person.

Call 419 543 1619 for basement to attic group tours only. (Call 419 524 1765 and leave a message for regular group and bus tours.)

Oak Hill Cottage Carriage House

Photo Credit: James Pennington

Learn more about Oak Hill Cottage here

http://www.mymidohio.com/modules.php?name=News&file=article&sid=246