With the slogan, “Some people collect art, we race it,” the Vintage Grand Prix at Mid-Ohio featuring Sportcar Vintage Racing Association (SVRA) is a perfect curtain raiser for the Mid-Ohio Sports Car Course’s 2017 racing season.

SVRA is one of the fastest growing segments of auto racing in North America. Cars from 11 SVRA racing groups bearing iconic names like Lola, Ferrari, Mustang, Triumph Spitfire, Trans-Ams and Aston Martin will bring their special brand of excitement and exhilaration to Mid-Ohio for a weekend rich in motorsports – past, present and future.

This will be the 35th consecutive year that SVRA visits historic Mid-Ohio.

Children 12 years old and under are admitted for free. Admission covers entry to all spectator areas, paddock access and parking. Guests can stroll the paddock to see the cars up close and chat with the drivers. Fans and entrants can shop the vendors row offering all types of racing clothing, photos and memorabilia.
