8th Annual Mansfield Airport Day and Car Show at Mansfield Lahm Airport

2017-06-26 14:35:54 by MelissaH0243

Get your 4th of July weekend off to a good start by visiting Mansfield Lahm Regional Airport to enjoy planes, good food, classic cars and more.

Sponsored by Milliron Autoparts.

The Mansfield Aviation Club (MAC) is pleased to announce that it will host a Fly-In (or drive to) Pancake Breakfast Plus on Saturday, July 1st at the Mansfield Lahm Airport pavilion. Breakfast will be served from 8:00am to 11:00am, and shredded chicken sandwiches, hot dogs, Sloppy Joes & soft drinks from 11:00am to 1:00pm.

Weather permitting, in association with Experimental Aircraft Association (EAA) Young Eagles Program, MAC pilots will offer free airplane rides to youngsters between the ages of 8-17 (a parent or guardian is required to register). Registration will begin at 11:30am on the north ramp adjacent to Subway with flights between 12:00pm-2:00pm.

Local pilots will be encouraged to open their hangars to display their aircraft.

There will be an antique car show, a C-130 on static display, and possibly an F-16 fly by.

Free Admission and Free Parking.

Saturday, July 1st from 8:00am to 4:00pm.
