

Slow Roll in North Mansfield with Slow Roll Mansfield

2017-07-08 15:56:08 by MelissaH0243

Slow Roll Through Mansfield's North End! Slow Roll Mansfield is about: Building Community through Cycling.

We will visit Johns Park, Blust Ave Community Garden, the Friendly House, Oak Hill Cottage, the Ocie Hill Center and a few other surprises. Expect a mostly flat ride of about 5 miles. A shorter ride will also be available. Dairy Land is closed on Mondays. Please park at the south end of the Dairy Land lot.

Monday, July 10th
7:00pm- 8:30pm

Slow Roll Mansfield is about: Building Community through Cycling. The ride is in the evening through the city amongst friends and fellow community members, rides are slow and fun. Everyone is invited to join us every Second and Fourth Monday of each month May-October. Rides will be around 3-6 miles. The routes will change during the Slow Roll Season.

Please Stop at Red lights, Stay in one lane. We regroup a lot. Cruiser pace. Music and lights are a big part of the experience. We will have some themes! We are inspired by the Akron Bike Party and all the Bike Parties and Slow Rolls around the world. Ride on!
