 MyMidOhio.com is a community site. We are here for the community and our content is a derivative of what the community itself demands be brought to the forefront of attention.

As such our content is supplied by the community for the community. We are truly "by the people", "of the people", and "for the people". The administrators of this site value this type of community content because we feel that above all else that friendly, honest, respectful communication is the key to uplifting our society, strengthening our community, and preserving our liberty.

Occasionally when interacting with MyMidOhio.com users may be awarded "points" on their account. These points are our equivalent of a "Member Reward Points" system. They are used to help us determine which of our members stand out by way of contributions to the site in the form of adding local content to our community and/or those members who frequently participate in site-wide routines and community site-wide events. These points have NO CASH VALUE and are not redeemable or exchangeable for any goods or services of any kind. They are simply our way of "keeping score" and keeping track of those individuals that stand out above the rest.

The terms and conditions regarding our points system may be found in our Legal section under Member Rewards.
