

5th Annual Polar Xpress and Moments of Christmas Magic in Downtown Shelby

2017-11-19 11:32:59 by

Visit Downtown Shelby for the 5th Annual Ashland Railway Polar X-press and The S.A.B.G's Moments of Christmas Magic!

Be sure to get your family to Shelby, Ohio for a meet and greet with Santa, over 11 different Christmas Characters, and several of Santa's Elves! They will be working non-stop for children to take free pictures (Bring your own camera).

We are giving the Pioneer Career and Technology Center students real life work scenarios at Central Gymnasium with the public! From Culinary Art students helping to decorate your Christmas Cookie to Early Childhood Development students who will be helping out the children with letters to Santa. Come out and support our next generation of entrepreneurs!

Make your way to downtown Shelby where every business downtown has their doors open with all kinds of free activities including hot cocoa, kids' bike raffles, gift card raffles, and merchandise giveaways!

We have the live reindeer and Ice Carving!

Starting at 12:00pm and ending at 6:00pm.

When the train arrives at 4:00pm on Main St, you can see the twinkle in every child's eye there! With the massive display of a beautifully hand painted locomotive train, one boxcar, and the caboose, this event makes a lasting impression on adults and children alike. What a great and affordable way to kick off those Moments of Christmas Magic with your loved ones!

This is a FREE event brought to you by the businesses of Shelby!
