Murder Mystery Dinner Theater at the Ohio State Reformatory

2018-03-02 14:34:36 by MelissaH0243

Join us for an interactive evening of mystery and crime solving at the beautiful and historic, Ohio State Reformatory!

Murder At The Black Rose, set in a 1920's speakeasy.

Guests will enjoy an exquisite 3-course meal from Mansfield's Ed Pickens' Cafe on Main. Entrees include, Medallions of Beef Chasseur, Chicken a la Rose, and Asparagus & Mushroom

Gratin.

For two weekends only! Tickets are $45 per person.

PLEASE NOTE:
Groups of 4 or more are encouraged to order their tickets together to ensure proper seating arrangements. Please register under one name when purchasing group tickets.

*All food selections are to be made upon purchase of a ticket. Main entrees cannot be changed at the event.

Handicap accessibility is available to those who are interested. Please call ahead to notify the Reformatory of your needs prior to the event so that we can better assist you.

*More clues for this mysterious evening soon to come

*Suggested attire is 1920's fashion.

Saturday, March 3rd
6:00pm-10:00pm

Sunday, March 4th
5:00pm-9:00pm

Friday, March 9th
6:00pm-10:00pm

Sunday, March 11th
5:00pm-9:00pm

To purchase tickets click HERE

Ohio State Reformatory MRPS
100 Reformatory Rd, Mansfield

Photo Credit: Facebook Event Page