

Fiber Harvest at Storybook Alpacas USA

2018-04-19 17:37:30 by MelissaH0243

It's finally SPRING!!! The alpacas are really excited to shed their winter coats.

Watch these little guys go from fluffy to skinny - either way they're the cutest animals on the planet!

Come share in the harvest event on Sunday, April 22nd from 2pm - 4pm.

Stop by our gift shop for fiber demonstrations by Susan Lee of Chelaubree Farm. Bring your knitting or spinning wheel and join her!

Or browse the gift shop for yarn, socks, scarves, giftware & supplies - all at 25% OFF during our final harvest open house.

Join us, bring cameras, ask questions and enjoy an afternoon at Storybook Alpacas.....Where Happily Ever Afters Begin! We can't wait to see you!
