Ohio Brass Exhibit at Kingwood Center Gardens

2018-04-20 19:12:12 by MelissaH0243

Beginning April 21st and running throughout the Kingwood season, is the Ohio Brass exhibit!

Founder, Charles Kelley King, was the first engineer of Ohio Brass and eventually became the Board Chairman and President.

In his honor, Kingwood Center Gardens is pleased to present the first-ever Ohio Brass exhibit, detailing the triumphs of this iconic manufacturing company from Mansfield, Ohio.

The exhibit is in the first floor of Kingwood Hall. The Hall is open for self-guided exploration Monday through Friday, 10am-2pm, and Saturday and Sunday from 11am-3pm.

Guided Tours, led by trained docents, are offered at 2pm on Saturdays and Sundays for $3.00 per person.
For guided tour options, please contact MacKenzie Cole at mcole@kingwoodcenter.org or by calling 419-522-0211

Kingwood is open daily April 1-October 31, 9am-7pm.
Admission is $5.00 per person. Children 6 and under will be free.

Kingwood Center Gardens
50 N. Trimble Rd., Mansfield

Photo Credit: Event Page

http://www.mymidohio.com/modules.php?name=News&file=article&sid=552