Mansfield Reformatory Field Trip with Cleveland Photographic Society

2018-05-30 21:52:26 by MelissaH0243

Join the Cleveland Photographic Society for a return to one of their most popular field trip destinations - the Ohio State Reformatory in Mansfield!

For four hours beginning at 7:00am, we will have unimpeded access to the entire Reformatory until the doors open to the general public at 11:00am. During this period, tripods, flash and light painting will be permitted. We are permitted to stay past 11:00am but must then abide by standard facility rules.

WHO, WHEN and HOW:
This field trip is open to EVERYONE - including members, family, friends and non-members - but advance sign-up and payment are required.

Saturday, June 2nd
7:00am-11:00am

We will meet at the entrance gate to the Reformatory beginning at 6:30am, with entrance promptly at 7:00am. Because the facility will only be open this early for our tour, the front gate will be locked shortly after 7:00am - PLEASE BE ON TIME.

COST:
Cost for this trip will be $30 per photographer and $12 for non-photographers.

Please note: if you are purchasing both photographer and non-photographer tickets, you'll need to purchase them in two separate transactions - sorry!

REGISTRATION DEADLINE:
Registration has been extended to May 31st at 10:00pm! **

Click HERE to register.

MORE INFO:
Tripods, Flash and light painting ARE permitted until 11:00am and there are no restrictions on the non-commercial use of your photographs.

This trip will be held rain or shine.

No tickets will be issued for this trip. You will receive a confirmation from PayPal for your purchase and we will be notified. On the day of the event, you'll check in with us and receive a wristband or other form of ticket for entry to the facility.
