

Living History Days at Lowe-Volk Park

2018-05-31 07:55:17 by MelissaH0243

Living History Days is a yearly historical event celebrating Crawford County's Revolutionary War connection.

The Crawford Park District partners with our local reenactment group, Colonel Crawford's Company, to put on this event.

There will be reenactments of Col. Crawford's capture, period demonstrations, historical presentations, tomahawk throwing, lantern & bus tours, and much more.

Bring the family to experience history as it was in Crawford County!
