Death by Dessert Ghosthunt with Sherri Brake at the Ohio State Reformatory

2018-06-01 01:35:15 by MelissaH0243

Join Sherri Brake, the author of the Haunted History of the Ohio State Reformatory as she hosts her 16th year of haunted history events with Death by Dessert Ghosthunts at the Ohio State Reformatory.

Cost of reservation includes admission to the investigation, a map of the Reformatory, To Die For Desserts, coffee & bottled water, use of Ghost hunting gear supplied for that evening, time to investigate on your own after the 1 hour tour concludes (4 hours on your own) until 1:00am, plus the author of the Haunted History of the Ohio State Reformatory is your host all night!

Saturday, June 2
8:00pm-1:00am (gate opens at 7:30pm)
5 spots are open

Saturday, August 25
8:00pm-1:00am (gate opens at 7:30pm)
11 spots are open

The glory of this event is that it is a much more intimate investigation than a public hunt. Public hunts here draw about 100 souls. We will only do 40 souls.

$95 per soul
Ages 18 and over
