THE FOLLOWING DAY:

Friday, June 22nd
Special Presentation "Images Fit for A King: The Art of Stephen King’s Work"
Location: Element of Art, 96 N. Main St., Mansfield
Time: 6:00 PM
Cost: Free

Join Carl Sederholm, Professor at Brigham Young University, as he speaks on work by three artists commonly associated with Stephen King: Bernie Wrightson, Michael Whelan, and Dom Brautigam. He will discuss why these artists are central to experiencing Stephen King's fiction and why we should pay attention to their work. He will also make connections between these artists and other influential works within popular culture, including comic art, album art, and book illustration.
