The 2016 Richland Lithic and Lapidary Society annual show will be held Saturday, June 4th from 10AM till 6PM and Sunday, June 5 from 11AM to 5PM at the Richland County Fairgrounds.

Parking is FREE! Admission is $5.00 for adults, $4.00 for seniors and $3 for children. Kids under 6 get in free as well as Scouts in uniform.

Silent Auctions will run hourly on both days. Along with door prizes, educational demonstrations and geode breaking also take place.

With over 10 quality dealers with inventory from international sources this is the biggest yearly "Rock and Gem" show within a 60 mile radius.

This amethyst cluster was purchased at last years show.

There will be special displays including Ohio's natural gemstone, Flint, with other artifacts and phosphorous rocks and minerals on display.

The child in all of us loves neat rocks and sparkly things so head on out for this annual fun and family educational event.
